Figure 1.9: Learning Support Services

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Support Facility</th>
<th>Mission or Objective</th>
<th>Students Served</th>
<th>Activities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Academic Support Centers | Provides students with opportunities to achieve academic success in courses and programs | All enrolled students                | • Tutoring Services
• Communication Center
• Computer Production Center
• Math Center
• Science Center
• Writing Center
• Online Writing Lab |
| Advising           | Provides students assistance in developing and implementing a plan to reach their educational and professional goals. | All enrolled students                | • Program Advising
• Course Selection
• Advising Marketplace |
| Bilingual Services | Offers students bilingual programs and services to help reach academic and personal goals | Current and prospective students with limited English proficiency | • Individual and group academic support
• Student support services including tutoring, advising, and advocacy
• Academic and job search services
• Services are offered at MATC campuses and community-based organizations. |
| Library            | Supports the efforts of the college to develop an information-literate community by facilitating intellectual, physical and electronic access to information, ideas and services for a diverse population with rapidly changing needs. | All enrolled students                | • Loan Books and Materials from the General Stacks;
• Maintain Reference and Periodicals (journals, magazines, newspapers):
• Maintain Reserve Items:, including Videocassettes on Reserve
• Coordinate Inter- and Intra-library loans and passes with other libraries
• Provide documentation and research workshops for classes by request
• Provides computers for student research |
| Mentor.net         | Provides female students with positive, one-on-one, email-based mentoring relationships with mentors from industry, government, and higher education | Women and minority students enrolled in science, technology, engineering, business, and computer science programs | • Pairs students with appropriate professionals in their chosen field |
| Pre-College Education Division | Prepares prospective students for college-level work | Prospective college-level students | • Adult Basic Education/College Prep
• General Educational Development Tests (GED)
• High School Equivalency Diploma assistance and testing
• Adult High School (with a full range of student services)
• English as a Second Language programs (E.L.L.)
• College Assistance Migrant Program
• High School Equivalency Program
• Just One Mentoring |