

Paramedic Program Approximate Costs

2020-2021 Terms

The Paramedic Program is eligible for financial aid.
Contact the Financial Aid office at 414-297-6282 or finaid@matc.edu

Tuition

Tuition and other fees for the 2019-2020 semesters are subject to change.

Fee amounts are available when you register.

WI Resident Cost Per Credit. Out of State Resident Cost per Credit are higher.

Approx. $166.80 per credit hour

38 credits Core Paramedic Classes ($6,338)

3 General Education Credits* required for program completion ($500)

* Students may apply for Advanced Standing to meet Gen Ed requirement

Textbooks

The MATC Bookstore has not established pricing for this package as of this date

This book is also available from the Publisher and other vendors:

Title: Paramedic Care: Principles & Practice, Vols. 1-5 + MyLab BRADY with Pearson eText 5th edition

Author: Bledsoe, Porter, Cherry

Pearson (Brady)

ISBN Number: 9780134572734

Title: Arrhythmia Recognition: The Art of Interpretation 2nd edition

Author: Garcia & Garcia

Pearson Jones and Bartlet

ISBN Number: 9781449642334

These two AHA textbooks are not required until the second semester:

American Heart Association Advanced Cardiac Life Support Provider Manual (most current addition) Approx. $30

American Heart Association Pediatric Advanced Life Support Provider Manual (most current addition) Approx. $40

Technology Package

Apple iPad 32GB w/2yrs Apple Care+ $399.00

Platinum Planner $111.25

EMS Testing $121.75

R-CAT 2nd. Ed. Bundle $40.00

Total: $672.00 ($709.63 w/ tax, Sponsorship sales are tax free)

On-Line Course fee $10 per credit

Student I.D. $7.50 per semester

You will need to obtain an official MATC photo ID if you do not already have one

Student Accident Insurance $7 per semester

Parking $35/Academic year, $25/semester

Other program costs*

All MATC Paramedic Technician students are required to complete a criminal background check, undergo drug testing and other obtain other health requirements.

Students will be given information once they are admitted into the program.

Sponsoring agencies may be able to provide these services

Uniform

$22 to $27 per Polo Shirt (more information about uniforms will be provided at a latter date)

Polo shirt sold by third party vendor

Students are also required to wear blue pants and black shoes for clinical and field assignments.

White smock is purchased from third party vendor approx. $25

Stethoscope $40 to over $100

Protective eye wear with side shields usually under $10 on-line

AHA Certification cards (ACLS/PALS)* $20 ($10 each)

 Subject to change*

National Registry (NREMT) Fees*

 These fees are paid at time of testing*

Cognitive exam paid directly to NREMT $125 per attempt

Psychomotor exam paid to MATC $250