

Student Contact Information: Student phone numbers/email. It is the student's responsibility to update their contact information in INFOnline. I and the college will attempt to contact you through this information. If I am unable to contact you because your information has not been updated and you are taking an assessment, it will be regarded that you have failed to take the assessment when scheduled and will have to take the assessment in the Academic Support Center without any reference material.